I am prompted for a password – why?

The Autobahn Toolbar uses your Windows password to silently login. In some cases, for example, if you are a recent joiner and do not have a WebSSO password, or your credentials have expired, you may see the login screen. (To request a new WebSSO password, enter https://login-intranet.issso.db.com/webssso/sso_PasswordReset.sso? into your web browser).

I cannot find the Toolbar in my Start menu/I need further access – what should I do?
